Sebastian cortes

Book report #2

11/14/24

1. What is the title of the book?
   The book tittle is “The town of skull tooth”
2. What is the "Main Idea" of the story?
   The main idea of this story is the conflict between lawlessness and authority in a remote town where outlaws like Daring Diablo seek to escape the law
3. Describe the personality of the main character in few words.
   I think Diablo has a bold and dominant personality, he is determined and confident, in a few words Diablo is a crude person, for some reason he was the most respected in the town.
4. Point out five new words that you learn with their meaning.
   Lawless without a system of rules to keep people and things safe
   Whine to talk in complaining voice
   Fancy fashionable or experience
   Glare to look at someone in a way that shows you are very angry
   Storm to walk somewhere in very angry way
5. Did you like it? Do you recommend it to your friends? Why? In few words.
   Yes, I would recommend it. It is a short story that is easy to understand. The story itself is interesting. Its characters are interesting and the plot of a town without laws is an interesting story that could be talked about much more.